

FREE VOICE

FREE

PUBLISHED BY THE CO-OP FOR BETTER LIVING IN PARIS

FREE

— VOICE'S CHOICES

NOVEMBER 1, 2, 8, 9

Galerie Alain Oudin presents modern natural wood totem sculptures by Luc Chapelain. This artist's work with its engraved geometric patterns on wood is reminiscent of African art.

In this 'primitive' artistic atmosphere, choreographer Karine Saporta will present a new dance and voice program. To the gallery setting will be added 'strawdust and tinsil', creating an atmosphere evoking magical incantations and altered interior states. 15 F, 9:00 p.m., 28, bis Blvd. Sebastopol, 4e.

«SAGAMORE CAFETERIA, N.Y.C. 1949» by Robert Frank

SATURDAYS 3, 10, 17, 24

The Co-op FLEA MARKET is open every Saturday afternoon (2:00-5:00 p.m.) for buying and selling.

NOVEMBER 6 - DEC. 8

Fifty vintage prints by ROBERT FRANK will be exhibited at the Zabriskie Gallery, 29, rue Aubry le Boucher, 4e. Some of these photos are from his book «The Americans», but others have never been seen before.

WEDNESDAY, NOV. 7

The paintings and drawings of Richard Mill and Mary Swaine go on display at the Canadian Cultural Center. Their work reflects what's new in the north country. C.C.C., 5, rue de Constantine.

WED. NOV. 7 - 12

THE TRISHA BROWN CO. Will perform at Beaubourg from Nov. 7 to 12 (8:30). She will perform: Accumulation, with Talking plus «Water Motor (1971-78)» «Line Up» and «Glacial Decoy» using visual effects by Robert Rauschenberg, tickets 20-30 F, Info: 278-7995.

T SUC#HFOR I AT LA F ORGE